

PLAGIARISM

- All articles submitted to KMUJ are subjected to plagiarism testing. KMUJ follows the standard definition and description of plagiarism(<http://facpub.stjohns.edu/~roigm/plagiarism/Index.html>) and we endorse Committee of Publication Ethics (COPE), ICMJE, Pakistan Association of Medical Editors (PAME), Higher Education Commission (HEC) policies regarding plagiarism available on www.cope.org, www.icmje.org and www.hec.gov.pk.
- Intellectual contribution and originality of every article is to be defined by the authors and this is the responsibility of authors to be aware of various forms of plagiarism like plagiarism of ideas, text, paraphrasing, self plagiarism including redundant/duplicate publication, salami slicing(data fragmentation) and text recycling etc. Ignorance regarding plagiarism and its various forms will not be considered as excuse.
- Any manuscript submitted for publication or a manuscript accepted for publication or even an article that has already been published in the journal is found to be plagiarized, the matter will be dealt with according to COPE guidelines.
- Editorial Board will immediately stop the processing/ publication of the article and will ask for an explanation from the authors. The corresponding author will be required to respond with an explanation within 30 days of receiving the letter from the editor.
- In case an acceptable explanation is provided by the author(s), the KMUJ editorial board may recommend appropriate changes after which the review process for the submitted manuscript may commence.
- In case of non response in the stipulated time or unsatisfactory explanation, the KMUJ editorial board will decide regarding the fate of the article and authors including
  - Rejection of the manuscript,
  - Withdrawn of already published article (as the case may be)
  - Debarment of the authors(s) from further publication in the KMUJ for one year or permanent depending upon the nature of offence.
  - The author will be on watch.
  - HEC, PMDC, PAME and author's institute will also be notified for information and possible action
- In case of multiple submissions, other editors will also be informed. The author(s) will have to provide documentary proof of retraction from publication, if such a defence is pleaded.
- Those claiming intellectual/idea or data theft of an article must provide documentary proof in their claim.
